Discussion Points

1/ Untenable Situation

- LJM situation where AF wants 2 hats and upside comp is so great creates a conflict ~~that puts me in~~ I am right in the middle of.
- I find myself negotiating with Andy on Enron matters and am pressured to do a deal that I do not believe is in the best interests of the shareholders [Did not ask to be put in this position]

2/ Requests/Options

(A) ~~Where~~ My integrity forces me to continue to negotiate the way I believe is correct - ~~in order~~ [However, AF is my boss].

- In order to continue to do this, I MUST know I have support from you and there won't be any ramifications [Believe it already has affected my comp]

OR

(B) Need to let me out of situation and go do something else in company. Will not compromise my integrity
