Dear Mr. Dingell,

I am sending this corrected letter to you in response to your original letter of May 8, 2008. My initial response had been marked as business confidential.

After working with your staff, I am moving the sensitive information to an attachment which would not be published on the internet. This way, my responses can be used as necessary.

Thank you for helping me to protect my customers and their consumers.

Sincerely,

JSM:bt

Dear Mr. Dingell,

I am responding to your letter of May 8, 2008 related to food recalls from January 1, 2000 to current date.

1. The list of all food recalls and food safety alerts issued by Morgan Foods including the date of the recall or alert, the product, the brand affected and the reason for the recall or alert.
Please see attachment A
2. For each kind of product, list all instances when internal microbiological testing was found to be positive for E. Coli, Salmonella, Cyclospora cayentensis, Cryptosporidium, hepatitis A, Clostridium botulinum or Listeria in excess of the highest limit acceptable to FDA or any State regulatory agency.
None
3. For each kind of product, list the instances when internal testing was found to be positive for the presence of a chemical contaminant at levels in excess of the highest limit acceptable to FDA or any State regulatory agency.
None
4. For products imported into the United States for handling or processing by any facility operated by your firm, please list the instances when internal or outside laboratory testing was positive for the presence of either a chemical or microbiological contaminant in excess of FDA or State regulatory limits.
None
5. For each of the above items, please specify whether FDA was notified, and if not, why not.
Yes.
6. Please supply a list of all instances where FDA or any State regulatory authority was denied entrance to any facility or records regarding microbiological or chemical testing performed on products processed at the facility.
Our policy is to cooperate with and permit such authorities to inspect according to the applicable acts. It is our policy to ask inspectors to put requests in writing for records. The undersigned is not aware of any instance in which these policies were violated and FDA or State inspectors were denied access with respect to our facility or such referenced records.

Sincerely,

Attachment: Attachment A (list of recall events)
