Re: PepsiCo, Inc. Response to May 8, 2008 Inquiry

Dear Chairman Dingell and Chairman Stupak,

I am writing in further response to your May 8, 2008 letter requesting food safety-related information on food and beverages processed and sold by PepsiCo, Inc. (PepsiCo).

PepsiCo has been cooperating fully in response to this inquiry. We appreciate the Committee's staff willingness to permit PepsiCo to make a staged submission in response to your May 18, 2008 letter.

I want to assure you that we took this process very seriously. We based the contents of our responses on a diligent world-wide search of company records by employees focused on food safety and regulatory matters. Our submission reflects our good faith efforts to provide the Committee, to the best of our knowledge, with the information you requested.

We believe the information submitted reflects the seriousness with which we take food safety at PepsiCo in our quest to provide our customers with the highest quality products.

Respectfully submitted,
