

---

Industry/NGO Responses to the Dingell/Boucher Letter of February 27, 2007 - Unsolicited

Responses from Unsolicited Organizations

- BP
- Shell
- DENSO
- Dupont
- Whirlpool
- Honeywell
- United Technologies
- Solid Waste Association of North America (SWANA)
- Waste Management
- FreMCo
- Northern California Power Agency
- Missouri River Energy Services
- Florida Municipal Electric Association
- National Gas Supply Association
- Seattle City Light
- Puget Sound Energy
- Santee Cooper (South Carolina Public Service Authority)
- AVISTA Corporation
- Integrated Waste Services Association
- National Hydropower Association
- American Wind Energy Association
- Steel Manufacturers Association
- Independent Petroleum Association of America
- Industrial Energy Consumers of America
- United Mine Workers of America
- Climate Policy Center
- Climate Institute
- Climate Policy Group
- Business Council on Sustainable Energy

- Sustainable Energy Network
- International Emissions Trading Association
- Chicago Climate Exchange
- Clean Energy Group
- World Resource Institute
- ICLEI Local Governments for Sustainability
- Defenders of Wildlife
- New England Light Pollution Advisory Group
- Greenpeace
- Nature Conservancy
- Society for Conservation Biology
- International Dark Sky Association
- Dark Skies for the Adirondacks
- Physicians for Social Responsibility
- National Council of Churches
- Solomon Associates
- Kenneth Johnson