

The U.S. Climate Action Partnership

The Committee on Energy and Commerce held a hearing titled, "The U.S. Climate Action Partnership" on Thursday, January 15, 2009, at 9:00 a.m., in 2123 Rayburn House Office Building. The hearing presented the perspectives of members of the U.S. Climate Action Partnership ("USCAP"), a coalition of over 30 businesses and nongovernmental organizations that has called for Congress to pass legislation to address the climate change threat.

The following witnesses testified:

- James Mulva, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, ConocoPhillips
- Jim Rogers, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Duke Energy
- Fred Krupp, President, Environmental Defense Fund
- John Rowe, President & Chief Executive Officer, Exelon Corporation
- Jeffrey Immelt, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, General Electric
- Frances Beinecke, President, Natural Resources Defense Council
- David Crane, President and Chief Executive Officer, NRG Energy
- Eileen Claussen, President, Pew Center on Global Climate Change
- Peter Darbee, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, PG&E Corporation
- Jeffry Sterba, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, PNM Resources
- Preston Chiaro, Chief Executive - Energy and Minerals, Rio Tinto
- George Nolen, President and Chief Executive Officer, Siemens Corporation
- Mark Tercek, President and Chief Executive Officer, The Nature Conservancy
- Jonathan Lash, President, World Resources Institute

Chairman Waxman's Opening Statement

Testimony of James Mulva

Testimony of Jim Rogers

Testimony of Fred Krupp

Testimony of Jeffrey Immelt

Testimony of Frances Beinecke

Testimony of David Crane

Testimony of Eileen Claussen

Testimony of Peter Darbee

Testimony of Jeffry Sterba

Testimony of Preston Chiaro

Testimony of George Nolen

Testimony of Mark Tercek

Testimony of Jonathan Lash