INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE TRUTH-IN-TESTIMONY DISCLOSURE FORM

In General. The form on the reverse side of the page is intended to assist witnesses appearing before the Committee on Energy and Commerce in complying with Rule XI, clause 2(g) of the Rules of the House of Representatives. The rule requires that:

In the case of a witness appearing in a nongovernmental capacity, a written statement of proposed testimony shall include a curriculum vitae and a disclosure of the amount and source (by agency and program) of any Federal grant (or subgrant thereof) or contract (or subcontract thereof) received during the current fiscal year or either of the two previous fiscal years by the witness or by an entity represented by the witness.

Please complete the form in accordance with these directions.

1. Name (Item 1 on the form). Please provide the name of the witness in the box at the top of the form.
2. Governmental Entity (Item 2). Please check the box indicating whether or not the witness is testifying on behalf of a government entity, such as a Federal department or agency, or a State or local department, agency, or jurisdiction. Trade or professional associations of public officials are not considered to be governmental organizations.
3. Nongovernmental Entity (Item 3). Please check the box indicating whether or not the witness is testifying on behalf of an entity that is not a governmental entity.
4. Entity(ies) to be Represented (Item 4). Please list all entities on whose behalf the witness is testifying.
5. Grants and Contracts (Item 5). Please list any Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants or subcontracts) that the witness personally has received from the Federal Government on or after October 1, 2009.
6. Representational Capacity (Item 6). If the answer to the question in item 2 is yes, please characterize the capacity in which the witness is testifying on behalf of the entities listed in item 4.
7. Affiliated Entities (Item 7). Please indicate whether the entity on whose behalf the witness is testifying has parent organizations, subsidiaries, or partnerships that are not represented by the testimony of the witness.
8. Grants and Contracts (Item 8). Please disclose grants and contracts as directed in item 7.
9. Curriculum Vitae (Item 9). Please attach your CV to your completed disclosure form.
10. Submission. Please sign and date the form in the appropriate place. Please submit this form with your written testimony. Please note that under the Committee's rules, copies of a written statement of your proposed testimony must be submitted before the commencement of the hearing. To the greatest extent practicable, please also provide a copy in electronic format according to the Electronic Format Guidelines that accompany these instructions.

The Honorable Deborah L. Wince-Smith
President & CEO, Council on Competitiveness

Deborah L. Wince-Smith is the President & CEO of the Council on Competitiveness (Council). Founded in 1986, this unique business-labor-academia coalition of leading CEO's University Presidents and Labor Union Leaders put forth actionable public policy solutions to make America more competitive in the global marketplace.

An internationally renowned leading voice on competitiveness, innovation strategy, science and technology, and international economic policy, Ms. Wince-Smith has been credited with recharging the national debate on competitiveness, innovation and resilience. Ms. Wince-Smith is frequently called upon to testify in front of the US Congress and appears regularly on global television news networks including Bloomberg, BBC, CNBC, CNN and Fox News.

In 2004, Ms. Wince-Smith spearheaded the groundbreaking National Innovation Initiative (NII), which played a pivotal role in creating a reinvigorated US competitiveness movement. The NII shaped the bipartisan America COMPETES Act, created state and regional innovation initiatives, and brought a global focus to innovation. Ms. Wince-Smith led the Council's 2009 National Energy Summit & International Dialogue. She has led a widely acknowledged and highly successful bilateral dialogue between the United States and Brazil on competitiveness and innovation strategy, including leading the 2007 and 2010 US-Brazil Innovation Summit. More recently, Ms. Wince-Smith created a coalition of over 60 CEOs, University Presidents, Labor Union Leaders and National Laboratory Directors to ignite an American Manufacturing Movement. This movement under the Council on Competitiveness' flagship US Manufacturing Competitiveness Initiative will modernize America's manufacturing base, create high-skilled, living wage American jobs and keep America competitive in the global marketplace.

Ms. Wince-Smith serves as a director of several publicly and privately held companies, leading national and international organizations, as well as U.S. government advisory committees. As a member of the Board of NASDAQ OMX, she has served on the Audit, Compensation and Finance Committees. Ms. Wince-Smith also serves as a Board Member of start-up technology companies specializing in hi-definition displays, consumer electronics and medical devices. She also serves on the board of the American Telemedicine Association, Lincoln Center Institute's Imagination Conversation. Ms. Wince-Smith is actively involved and serves on the non-profit, charitable boards of the US Naval Academy Foundation and the Smithsonian National Board.

Ms. Wince-Smith is a Senate-confirmed member of the Oversight Board of the Internal Revenue Service, responsible for administering the nation's tax laws. She recently chaired the Secretary of Commerce's Advisory Committee on Strengthening America's Communities and currently serves on the Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on International Economic Policy. She chairs the World Economic Forum's Global Agenda Council on Competitiveness and is a member of Japan's prestigious global Science & Technology in Society Forum Council.

Ms. Wince-Smith has served on the Boards of the Department of Energy National Laboratories, including the University of California President's Council overseeing the Lawrence Livermore, Los Alamos and Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratories. Currently she serves on the University of Chicago's Board of Governors for Argonne National Laboratory. During her tenure on the Board of Governors for Argonne National Laboratory, she has chaired the Audit, Compensations and Budget committees, and currently serves on the Nominating and Governance Committees.

Since 2009, Ms. Wince-Smith is the president of the Global Federation of Competitiveness Councils (GFCC), whose creation she led with leaders and stakeholders from over 30 Competitiveness Councils from around the world. The GFCC is the first global network devoted exclusively to the exchange of knowledge and practice related to competitiveness policies and strategies; and, the first global, public-private mechanism to promote global economic growth through collaboration in innovation.

During her 17-year tenure in the federal government, Ms. Wince-Smith held leading positions in the areas of science, technology policy and international economic affairs. She began her career as a program director for the National Science Foundation, where she managed US research programs with Eastern European countries and US universities. Most notably, she served as the nation's first Senate confirmed Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Technology Policy in the administration of President George H.W. Bush, overseeing federal technology transfer policy, implementation of the Bayh-Dole Act, and the White House National Technology Initiative. During the Reagan Administration, Ms. Wince-Smith was appointed as the first Assistant Director of International Affairs and Competitiveness in the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy. Ms. Wince-Smith was the architect of the landmark 1988 Head of Government Science and Technology Agreement with Japan and developed ministerial bilateral collaborations with China, India and Latin America.

Ms. Wince-Smith developed President Reagan's 1988 Competitiveness Initiative, and led the implementation of executive orders and new laws that transformed federal technology transfer policy for U.S. industries, national laboratories and universities. Following her government tenure, Ms. Wince-Smith became active in governance of various national scientific laboratories and provided strategic counsel to several FORTUNE 100 companies.

Ms. Wince-Smith, a valedictorian from Old Trail School in Akron, Ohio, graduated magna cum laude from Vassar College with a Bachelor of Arts degree. She was one of the first female students to enter King's College at the University of Cambridge, where she read for a Master's degree in Classical Archaeology. In 2006, she received an Honorary Doctorate in Humanities from Michigan State University.

Ms. Wince-Smith is married to former Deputy United States Trade Representative Ambassador Michael B. Smith and resides in McLean, Virginia. Their sons, Devereux B. Smith and Christian M. Smith are Midshipmen at the US Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland.
